

SPEAKING

Part 3 4 minutes

Here are some skills that might be considered important for young people to have before they leave home and a question for you to discuss. First you have some time to look at the task.

Now, talk to each other about how important it is for young people to learn each of these skills before leaving home.

Candidates A and B discuss this together for about 3 minutes.

Now you have about a minute to decide which of these skills is the most important for young people to learn before leaving home.
