A taste of Thailand

★★★★★

If you love Thai food, you must check out this place. The food was beyond amazing, and the staff were incredibly kind and attentive. Unfortunately, we were just visiting the area for the weekend, but if we lived nearby, we'd go back in a heartbeat. As a starter, we had veggie summer rolls, which were out of this world! For main, my husband had the chicken green curry, and it was so fresh and bursting with flavour. I had the spicy stir-fried pork and, although it was a bit spicier than I usually like it, it was divine. If I could give this place 6 stars, I would! Highly recommended.

A big let down!

I'd read some good reviews of this restaurant online and was excited about the thought of a great steak but unfortunately, it didn't live up to the hype. We got there at 8.15pm, and despite having booked a table, we had to wait for more than 20 minutes, and they didn't even offer us a drink at the bar. Then, once we sat down, we were told we'd have to leave the table by 9.30pm. I was not impressed to say the least. Once we'd ordered, the food arrived fairly quickly, but the steak was extremely tough (almost inedible, to be honest), and the sauce was depressingly bland. We won't be going back, which is a shame because it's stylishly decorated and our waitress was friendly. The wine selection was good, too, if a little pricey.

Mediocre

Had chicken fajitas, which were tasty but quite cold. The cocktails were delicious, though. I'd especially recommend the strawberry mojito. Authentic decor and nice atmosphere, but the service was soooooo slow. We didn't leave a tip. Can't complain about the price. Overall, it was OK, but I wouldn't rush back.

Great food and atmosphere

★★★★☆

Just had a yummy lunch with some friends. I love tapas, and this didn't disappoint. We sat upstairs at a cosy table in the corner. Fab atmosphere, and Dani was a lovely waiter. We shared a selection of dishes, which arrived quickly and were tasty. The desserts were even better. The chocolate cheesecake was particularly delicious. Great value for money.

Best burgers in town

★★★★☆

We went to this traditional American diner for the first time last night, and we'll definitely be back for more. It's really family friendly, and as soon as we walked through the door, the waiters were extremely attentive and made us feel at ease. High chairs, colouring pens and paper for the kids, etc. Portions were generous, and the barbecue burger was one of the best I've ever had! Good value for money, too. Definitely worth a visit!

Wow! A little gem!

★★★★★

My girlfriend and I went to this restaurant at the weekend, to celebrate our anniversary, and we had a wonderfully memorable experience. Located in the old town, their Middle Eastern-inspired menu is impressive, and every dish we tried was excellent. The dips were delicious – try all of them! The friendly staff were very knowledgeable about the menu and ingredients and were able to suggest great wines to go with different dishes. The venue was relaxed and charming with cosy lighting, which made it all feel quite romantic. It wasn't just couples, though – there were groups of friends as well. It's very popular, so book in advance. All in all, a fantastic experience, and we'll go back again soon.

Yes yes yes! Vegan heaven!

I've been looking for more vegan-friendly restaurants since I switched to a plant-based diet, so when a friend told me about this vegetarian café, I was keen to try it out. Though not everything on the menu is vegan, I was pleasantly surprised by the number of dishes I could choose from. I had the baked artichokes followed by the sweet potato coconut curry. Yum! The service was incredible, too. The staff dealt brilliantly with my son's gluten intolerance. If I had to criticize one thing, it would be that the tables were too close together, so we felt a bit cramped. Even so, this will become one of our go-to eateries.

Best pizza ever!

If you're looking for an authentic Italian pizza, then this place is spot on! The restaurant itself is tiny, but it has a great vibe. The staff are super friendly, all Italian! The guy who runs it is extremely charming. What's great is that the pizzas are prepared right in front of you. The bases are light and there's a massive choice of toppings. I can honestly say that the seafood pizza was the tastiest I've ever had. My girlfriend and I shared a tiramisu for dessert, which was delicious. Very reasonably priced, too. 10/10.
