Teaching Business English and ESP: Legal English

Overview of the Legal Profession
By Rosemary Richey

Aim
To practise and expand vocabulary and phrases associated with describing the field of law.

Level
Upper-intermediate to advanced

Pre-lesson
This activity is appropriate for anyone in the legal profession who would like to practise describing basic roles and tasks in English.

Procedure
- Discuss with the students/participants if they typically deal with describing their legal services in English. They could be required to give presentations, to design promotional material, or to handle English speaking clientele. This will give you a preview of how well they can discuss legal services in English.
- Distribute worksheets. The students work in pairs or groups to complete the worksheet. Monitor as they work together. Provide any advanced learners dictionary such as Macmillan English Dictionary to help them.
- Check answers by each pair or group presenting an exercise section.
- In exercise 1 exploit the difference in meaning for each label. Check a dictionary under lawyer to guide the discussion.
  Answers: lawyer (both)....counselor (AE)...advocate (BE: Scotland)...attorney (AE) ....solicitor (BE)...barrister (BE: England)...counsel (both)
- For exercise 2 ask each pair for 1 example task or case for the types of law practice. Suggested combinations: corporate law....finance law (banking/securities) .... criminal law....labour law......real law (real estate).... contract law.... tax law .....copyright law.... public law (government)
- In exercise 3-4 participants come up with example sentences of their own roles and duties. This can also used for a mini-presentation to describe their appropriate title, field of law and example tasks.
  Answer to exercise 3: firms......clientele draw up....deeds....wills arbitrate...parties file...to sue on behalf of

Tips
- Look up a law firm’s website on internet. (This can be from your own lawyer.) Take the promotional material and underline key words and phrases to describe basic legal services. On cards or on 1 sheet of paper, make a list of synonyms where students find the like words in the text. This can be done as jigsaw exercise or as a whole worksheet for homework.
- Refer to any basic legal coursebook or look up basic legal terms on-line to create more exercises (such as gap-fills or matching) for legal service description.
OVERVIEW OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Try this practice for basic description of roles and tasks within the legal field.

1 Label the following as British English (BE) or American English (AE). Some could be both British and American.

* lawyer _______________
* advocate _______________
* solicitor _______________
* counsel _______________
* counsellor _______________
* attorney _______________
* barrister _______________

2 Circle the words to combine with law to describe major areas of legal practice.

company    relevant    state    corporate    market target    cooperative    finance    criminal regulation    labour    common    real    contract tax    copyright    development    public

3 Underline the appropriate words or phrases to finish these sentences.

► Law forms/firms offer complete legal services for domestic and international clientele/customers.

► Lawyers draw up/decide on documents such as contracts, deeds/drafts and wills/warranties.

► They typically alternate/ arbitrate problems and disputes between players/parties.

► Lawyers can fold/file a case of wrong-doing where someone wants to sue/to sew for a cash settlement.

► When a person doesn’t want to talk directly to the other, attorneys often speak in spite of/on behalf of someone.

4 Using words and phrases from the above exercises, write 3-4 sentences about your roles and tasks within the legal field.

..............................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................
.......................................................................................................................................