

Colour: first reading

These are paint colours.
If A is red, what are the other colours?

These are colours from light. If A is red, what are the other colours?

- What do you know about Isaac Newton? Was he American or British?
- What happened in Britain in 1666?
- What are the seven colours of the rainbow? And why are there seven?
- 5 What are indigo and cyan?
- 6 Why is a leaf green?
- 7 How many basic colours are there?

Colour: second reading

- 1 How many animals are in the text?
- Which meal has more orange in it: breakfast, lunch or dinner?
- 3 Do you agree with these statements?
  - I am the colour of melting yolks of soft-boiled eggs.
  - · I am the colour of the Sahara desert
  - Orange is passionate, sensual and fun.
- 4 Is there anything orange that is not included?
- 5 Can you work out the meaning of theses words from their context?
  - the orangutan as it sways through the jungle
  - the glow of the embers as the fire dies
  - floral necklaces made from Indian marigolds
  - the hennaed hair of Berber women

