

Bridges: quiz

- 1 Where is the longest bridge in the world?
- 2 How long is it?
- 3 What are the three main types of bridges?
- 4 What material did the Romans use to make bridges?
- 5 What does 'resonance' mean?
- 6 Where is the 'wobbly bridge'?
- 7 Which force of nature is the most difficult for bridge builders?
- 8 What does 'suspend' mean?
- 9 What does 'burn your bridges' mean?
- 10 What does 'It's all water under the bridge' mean?

- a The beam, the arch and the suspension bridge.
- b To hang something from something else.
- c The main span is 1,991m.
- d The weather
- e The Akashi-Kaikyo Bridge is in Japan.
- f The Millennium Bridge is in London.
- g That something happened in the past and is now forgotten or no longer important.
- h Stone
- i To do something that makes it impossible to return to the previous situation later.
- j A vibration in something caused by a similar vibration from another object.

fold