

Save some for me!

one stop cilil

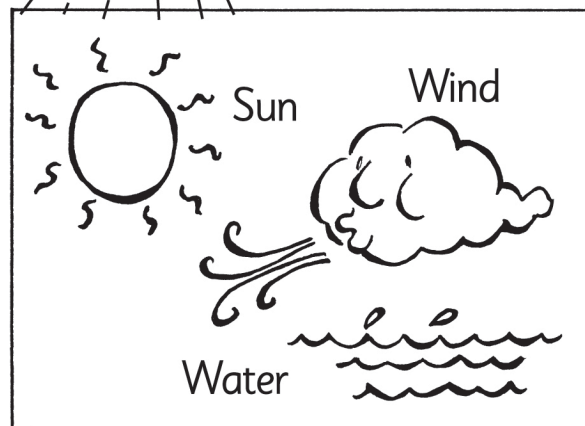

Some ways of getting energy will always be there – we call these renewable. Others will get used up and will run out one day – we call these non-renewable.

These are some of the things we get our energy from.

Non-renewable

Renewable

Draw a line from each of these objects to show how they are powered.

Sneaky clue – electricity is often made by burning coal.

