

Dear

Dear Victoria

I am 14 years old and have a problem with my father. He's too strict! I don't have enough free time to go out with my friends. He says my homework is more important so I can't go out. I stay in every evening except at the weekend. It's awful! I want to go out every night not only on Friday and Saturdays!

Can you help me?

Maria

Dear Victoria

I am 17 years old and I have a problem with my mother. She's too mean! I don't have enough pocket money and so I can't buy all the CDs and magazines I want. It's terrible! All my friends have much more money than me. I feel very unhappy. I want money every week, not every month!

What can I do?

Karim

Dear Maria

First, I think that your father is right. Homework is very important.

Second, you can go out twice a week, so that's good. You don't stay in every night.

Why not ask to go out one more night, perhaps midweek, but not every night?

Victoria

Dear Karim

First, you're lucky to get money. I'm sure your mum gives you what she can.

Second, I think that perhaps you're a little selfish - you can buy some CDs and magazines.

Why not start to do some Saturday work to get some extra money?
