

Finding what follows: Patterns in verbs, adjectives, and prepositions

Building your vocabulary isn't about learning one word at a time—the trick is to learn patterns of words. An online dictionary can show you the prepositions that follow verbs and adjectives. You can see if verbs are followed by a verb in the -ing or the infinitive form. Do the activities and discover the patterns of the English language!

Activity 1

What are the prepositions that follow generous and long? Look at these screenshots from the Macmillan online dictionary and identify the pattern.

generous _____, _____, _____,

long _____

Activity 2

Complete these sentences with the correct prepositions, and guess if you are not certain. Then check your answers in the Macmillan online dictionary.
