

Pre-Intermediate – Do your best in difficult times

A. You love science, so you applied to enter an important school that studies tech & science. You took an admission test, but didn't pass it. You were really nervous and had a hard time concentrating. You will have a second chance. What can you do to do better next time?	B. Your friends invited you to a dance club next weekend, and you're a bit nervous. You like dancing a lot, but it's your first time at a club, so you memorized a routine from a video. When you started dancing, you did your routine, but it didn't match with the song they were playing at all! You feel so embarrassed! What can you do to make the situation better?	C. You want to learn a new instrument, so you decided to play the piano. Your best friend plays the piano, so you take classes with the same teacher... but you're terrible! Your friend follows what the teacher says well, but your fingers don't seem to cooperate. What can you do?

Reflection Point

Everybody finds something that is difficult for them. When things are hard, try to find a way to learn from them.
